

Activity 4

Which innovations are already out there?

The basis of thinking about innovation is to understand what already exists.

With this challenge you are asked to identify and describe the actions of three good examples of associations, institutions, research centers or non-governmental organizations that are strongly involved in the design and implementation of solutions to mitigate ocean pollution by plastic.

Upload your document in the Moodle platform using PDF format.

ULisses Team,

Lisbon, 24th April 2021